WARNING NOTICE: INTELLIGENCE SOURCES AND METHODS INVOLVED

PROJECT NUMBER:	0122 (Tng)	SESSION NUMBER:	1
DATE OF SESSION:	03 OCT 90	DATE OF REPORT:	04 OCT 90
START:	1041	END:	1108
METHODOLOGY:	ERV	VIEWER IDENTIFIER:	052

1. (S/SK) MISSION: To describe the target site (Squire Boone Caverns, ^{Village} Indiana) using ERV methodology.

2. (S/SK) VIEWER TASKING: "Describe the target identified by encrypted coordinates 901003/122001".

3. (S/SK) COMMENTS: No personal Physical Inclemencies (PI) reported, but the building had a strong smell of skunk spray. 052 had an excellent session, wavering on and off target throughout the session. Post-session discussions have centered around the fact that 052 is still hoping to be able to identify the site during the session, instead of just describing perceptions. ~~This desire is the probable cause of AOL, causing 052 to drift off site periodically.~~ Summary of Information is attached

SUMMARY OF INFORMATION:

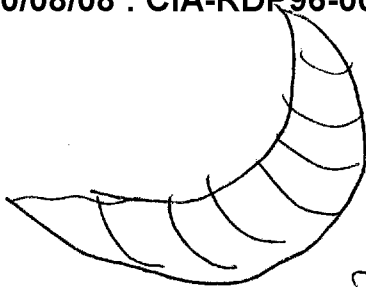

The target is a structure that is pointed on top with two curved things on each side. There is something curved, tall, big, cold, dark and foggy. It makes me think of a castle that is haunted. There is at least one person inside. There are a lot of objects scattered around. One object is rounded with something in the middle and rounded on the other side. This site is a touristy place to go visit, but I do not like it. It is dark and cold. I cannot see anything. It only gets light for about one second, a small, rounded light, and you can see a few objects when this light appears. The first time the light came on I saw a lot of blue, coming in waves. There was some really sheer material, smooth and silky, like curtains, being blown to the left by the wind, see sketch. Then it was dark and I couldn't see any light at all. When the light came on again, I saw holes, like crevices in the ground or underground. It is very cold. There is a chugging sound, that makes me think of an underground railroad and a rumbling sound that makes me think of a volcano, or something "coming up". There is a square/star-like shape that has curved sides. There is a crescent-shaped object that is rolled. There is something that is covered by a black tarp. There are many mounds, some are pointed and some are curved on top. The purpose of the site is to cover up or hide something.

Squire Boone
1744-1815

Approved For Release 2000/08/08 : CIA-RDP96-00890R000100060000-1

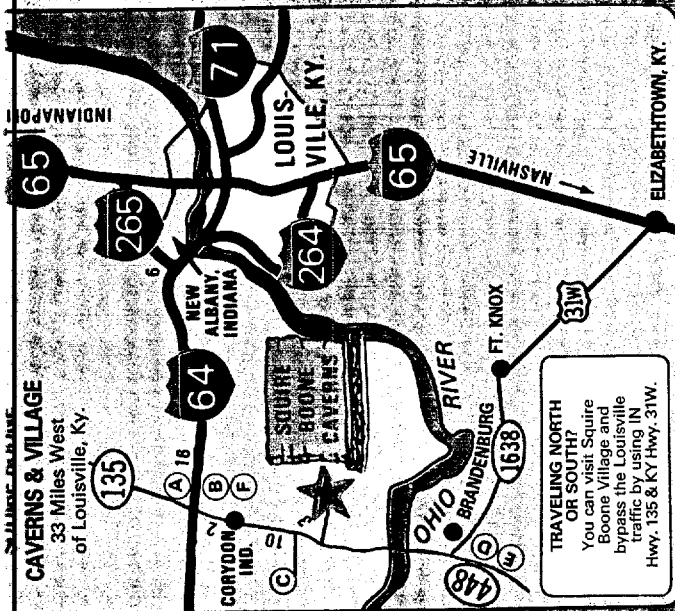

was one of the most prominent pioneers in the Ky and Indiana history. He fought in many bloody battles with the Indians - including the Battle of Fort Mifflin. He also helped to clear the Wilderness Road. It was at Squire's house that Boone Township was established. Squire was wounded 11 times during his life. His sons took him close to death. Two years before his death, at the age of 71, he was made a member of Congress because of his service during the Revolutionary War.

His older brother, Daniel, discovered these caves later hid in the caverns while being pursued by hostile Indians. From that day forward, Squire and his family lived in the caves to be holy ground. He lived with his wife and four sons in the early part of the 18th century. The spring that flows from a cave at the mouth of the spring that flows from the cave was that Boone Township was established in 1815 his sons honored his final request that he be buried in his beloved cave. Before he died, he was buried in the cave. He is described on one of the foundation stones of the Boone Caverns as a man whose life hath much befriended, I'll praise Him

Experience a Day of Adventure and Learning at Squire Boone Caverns & Village

Turn back the clock 200 years to the day of the pioneer — log cabins, farm animals, stoneground corn, lye soap, hand dipped candles, and fresh baked bread. Visit with the people that make it all come alive. Relive America's days gone by.

Descend into the Caverns and learn through observation many things about our earth. Where did limestone come from? How does water move underground? What causes cave formations to grow? Why are many animals that live in caves blind and albino?

Ride in a haywagon through the Squire Boone Forest. Hear how the limestone outcroppings, nearby springs, and sinkholes mean that deep below the earth's surface lies a labyrinth of underground passageways filled with shimmering waterfalls, delicate soda straws, and massive stalactites.

We invite you to visit us for a look in our country's past, as well as a look in the beginnings of our earth. And when you're here, plan on getting plenty of some good old Hoosier Hospitality!
